

8 | Laura Christie and Tom Duncan: 49 Sole Farm Avenue, KT23 3DG

Design inspiration for an unusually-shaped plot. A wildlife-welcoming treasure, including stylish pond and snazzy bug-house. Lushly planted for colour, scent and variety. A beautiful selection of trees, shrubs, climbers and perennials. Children's trail of (static!) creatures and wildlife habitats.

Plants for sale.

9 | Bishy and Barry Feltham: Lynwood, 29 Sole Farm Road, KT23 3DW

NEW: A pretty, well maintained garden with a mixture of annuals, perennials and exotic plants giving a variety of colours and textures. There is a good sized pond, seating areas and statues to discover. It is a beautiful and functional garden offering peace and relaxation.

10 | Linda Longmire: Langdale, Little Bookham Street, KT23 3BY

A lovingly maintained, mature garden, which greets visitors with a blaze of colour from seasonal containers, shrubs and perennials. A fine collection of acers display contrasting leaf forms and colours.

11 | Jean and Geoff Mann: Bay Trees, Burnhams Road, KT23 3AU

A beautifully designed and tranquil woodland garden with interesting water features, lending an oriental feel. There are seats on which to linger and narrow paths to explore the many delights along the way.

12 | Hilary Nicholls: 7 Fox Lane, KT23 3AT

NEW: A recently designed and laid out garden, its sunny aspect allows a mix of interesting shrubs and perennials to grow happily. A brick sett path leads from the house through to a more informal area which includes a beautiful group of very white stemmed birch trees. The distinct parts of the garden are separated by a low yew hedge.

13 | Little Bookham Allotments: Maddox Lane, KT23 3HT

Discover one of Bookham's best kept secrets nestled on the edge of Bookham Common. Visitors will find not only allotments to explore but also a wildflower meadow and an abundance of flowers to enjoy. Our Open Gardens team have been busy growing a wide selection of superb plants for sale.

Plants for sale. Parking on site.

14 | Jenny and Tod Wilson: Hawthorns, Meadowside, KT23 3LG

This traditional garden is always a work in progress. Unusual trees and shrubs make it special. With many natural features, it attracts regular visits by foxes, roe deer, grass snakes, goldfinches and woodpeckers. It is also butterfly and bee friendly. Parking space around the corner in Elmfield.

15 | Steve and Janice Urry: 1 Lower Road, KT22 9EL

An extensive, mature garden packed with trees, shrubs and flower beds as well as a large fish pond with waterfall, rose pergola and raised vegetable plots. There are interesting and unexpected areas to explore and younger visitors will enjoy the play area.

Parking in drive or Lower Road.

We are always looking for new gardens to open so if you feel you have a garden in the village that might be of interest for future years or if you have any other queries, please contact:

- 1 | Sarah Kent: 26 Gilmais, KT23 4RP
 Designed five years ago the garden has matured into a lovely space. Specimen trees planted in the lawn overlook colourful mixed beds, with pots and planters grouped on the sunny terrace, adding to the interest and colour.
- 2 | Angela Stevens: Craig, 8 Whitehaven Drive, off Eastwick Road, KT23 4FE
NEW: A garden where every space is full of interest, with colourful pots, shrubs and climbing plants, alongside unusual and imaginatively recycled artefacts. There are fruit trees trained against walls, a rose arch and small water feature.
- 3 | Barbara and Max Hicks: 75 Eastwick Park Avenue, KT23 3NH
 A delightful and well-designed family garden with many interesting features. A curving path invites you into the garden to find an intriguing treehouse platform in the apple tree, a paved seating area with a raised bed, and a wide range of plants chosen with a skilled use of colour. Plants and crafts for sale.
- 4 | Judy Kelly: St Nicolas Cottage, 2 Church Road, KT23 3PW
 This delightful cottage garden is full of mature trees, roses, shrubs, colourful beds and numerous planted pots. Steps lead from the terrace up to the lawn and a pond has been added, linking the two, altogether making a fitting setting for the ancient cottage.
- 5 | Angela and Ian Baker: 256 Lower Road, KT23 4DL
 A winding path leads all the way past the small pond to the end of this delightfully informal garden. Here in the sunniest spot is a gravel bed of late summer plants and herbs. The garden is designed to look a little wild and is planted with interesting plants chosen for their textures as much as their colours.
- 6 | Diane and Steve Poole: The Cottage, Water Lane, KT23 3QH
 Mature garden featuring several ponds, wildflower mini-meadows, nectar-rich plantings, trees and lots of wildlife habitats. Also rose and herbaceous borders, fruit trees and bushes, assorted containers, greenhouse, a native bonsai collection and places to sit and enjoy the garden.
Please note - no parking in Water Lane. Park at the Vineries (until 3.30pm) or Manor House Lane near the church.
- 7 | Val and Rob Boyle: 8 Sole Farm Avenue, KT23 3DE
NEW: A small but nicely designed and interesting garden. It is wildlife friendly without looking wild. A bridge leads over the quite large pond to a blue summer house and sunny decking area. You will have passed raised beds, a mini greenhouse and troughs of vegetables on your way in. There is a lovely selection of ornamental and fruiting trees giving shade and colour at different times of year.
